ABOUT ME

ABOUT JEREMY

STRATEGIST

Too often there isn't one big challenge to solve, there are hundreds of speedbumps. It's my passion to figure out how to smooth your road.

DOER

Not only can I spot the speedbumps, I am able to smooth them over, so your company can hit its top speed.

TEACHER

Leading, training, and mentoring your team is critical to long-term avoidance of further speedbumps.

CREATIVE

As an added benefit, I'm a writer, musician, and karaoke fiend. That creative streak comes in useful at the oddest times!

SOME THINGS I DO

01

STRATEGY

02

ANALYTICS

Deep data should be more than actionable, it should be actioned!

03

PLANNING

Building a concrete plan that continues to optimize over time.

04

WRITING

Delivering content that resonates and creates motivation.

05

TRAINING

Helping build the next generation through training and mentoring.

FROM TEAM & CLIENTS

Jeremy is quick to identify the right solution - one that helps drive business objectives, which isn't as common as you would think in this space. I can always rely on him to provide helpful advice and guidance, even when tackling the hardest of problems.

- Yasmine Kashefi, President, Spruce + Willow

Jeremy's focus on ensuring there was a strong data-driven justification for any and all decisions, and his ability to explain incredibly complex concepts allowed us opportunities to do truly innovative work, even with the most conservative of clients. His wide and varied knowledge created many, many opportunities with both existing clients, and new ones.

- Jon Crowley, SVP Strategy, Diamond

Jerem's superpower is how passionate he is when he has an idea. All too often he shines the spotlight on other's abillities, but he's one of those people you turn to for advice, insight, and the solution you wouldn't have found otherwise. He's the kind of guy you want to work with because you know he'll make whatever idea you have better, whatever project more successful, and whatever work you do more fun!

- Lucretia Pruitt, Managing Director, Collective Bias

Jeremy has always been a agency partner that I admire and appreciate having on my teams. I have worked with Jeremy across multiple roles and always appreciate his insight, effort, and openness. I would recommend Jeremy as a person you should do business with or get to know.

CASE STUDIES

HEALTHY CHOICE LAUNCH

Role:
- Strategy
- Planning
- Writing
- Analytics
- Dashboard building
- Lead social
- Lead account

CHALLENGE

Appeal to young professional women's desire for healthier living within a busy life.

SOLUTION

Build a daily content plan, delivered via social/email/app that encouraged users to take a "daily healthy step" (do a wall sit, take the stairs instead of elevator, etc), and be able to share that "small victory" to their network. Total "steps" by the community were calculated, and prizes awarded at various tiers.

IMPACT

More than 2 million Canadian women participated, generating over 2.5 million shares of 13 million steps. Total impressions were over 100 million.

TRUE DIGITAL PARK

Role:
- Design programs & events
- Public speaking
- PR
- Project management
- Content creation
- Social media
- Media buying
- Stakeholder management

CHALLENGE

Build a physical “home” for startups in Bangkok, Thailand that is the premier place for local and international startups to learn, network, and grow.

SOLUTION

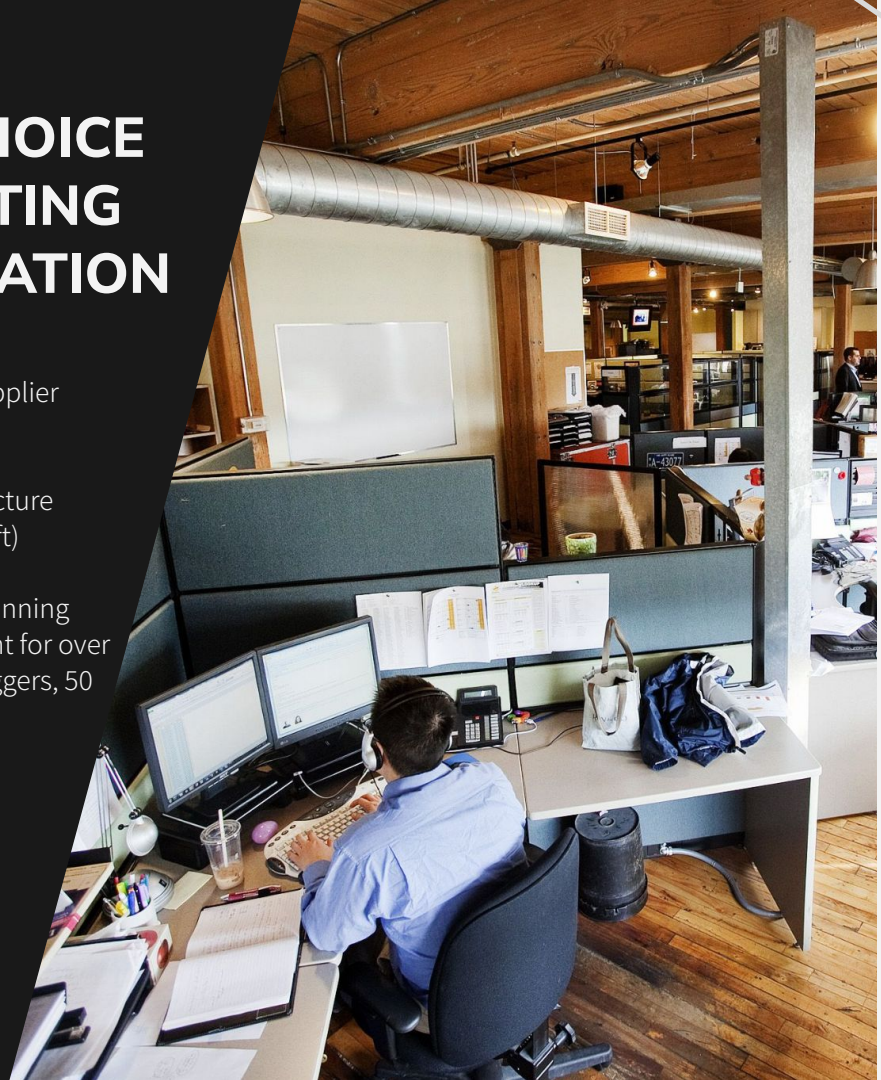

Create a content framework to continually educate, inform, and inspire. Have rotating pop-ups and exhibits startups could either use (services / food / “malls”) or showcase inside. Increase awareness of startups as a viable option for Thais. Bring world-class startups in as examples of what is possible.

IMPACT

Over 5,000 startups impacted. 500 housed on campus. 10 “keystone” international startups joined.

SOFTCHOICE MARKETING AUTOMATION

Role:
- System and supplier selection and management
- System architecture
- Client (Microsoft) relations
- Automation planning and development for over 100 paths, 20 triggers, 50 emails and 20 pieces of downloadable content.
- Write and build landing pages

CHALLENGE

Leverage the 10+ years of data Microsoft had on Softchoice customers to create a deep persona-driven MA campaign for IT-as-a-Service.

SOLUTION

Based on personas and company roles, build a series of funnels that were customized to timing, pathing, and scoring to deliver effective messages, training, offers, webinars, and white papers over a period of 6 months (the typical buying cycle).

IMPACT

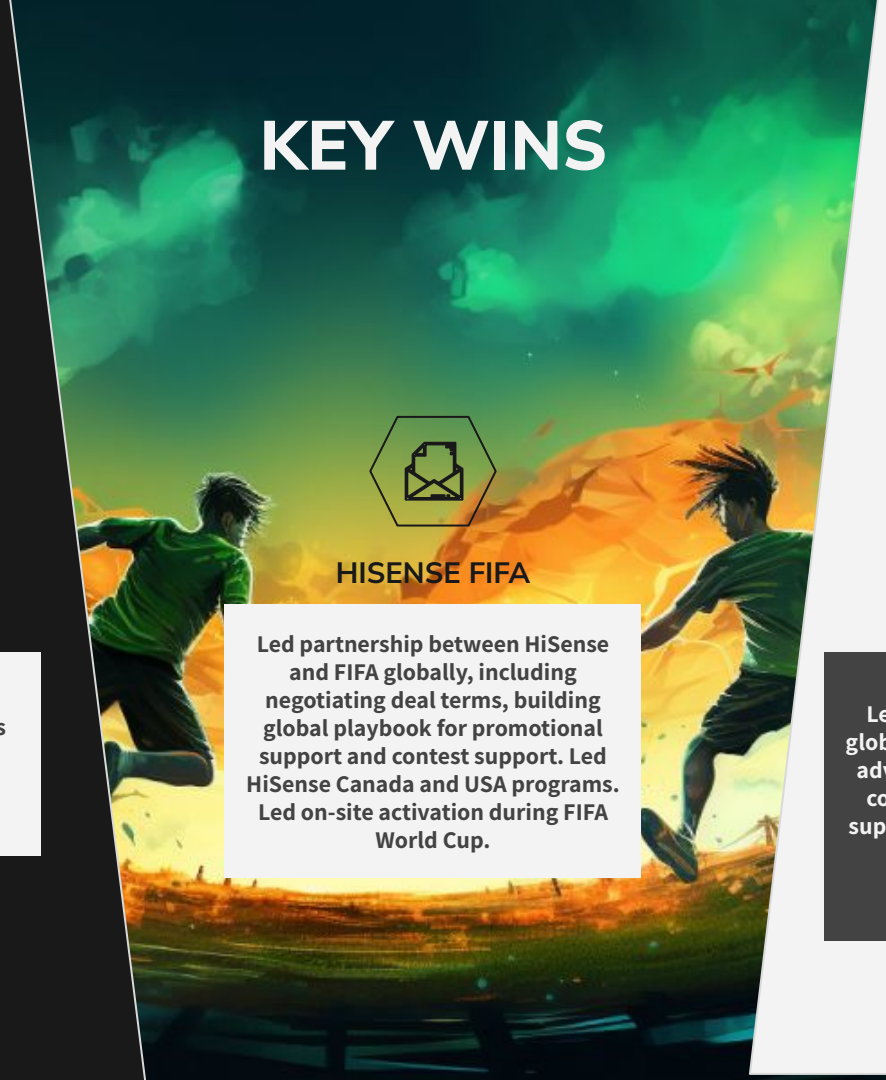

New interactions grew 30% vs baseline, resulting in over 100 new deals or upgrades and $50MM in additional revenue.
